VACATING GUIDELINES

Prior to vacating your unit, tenant(s) MUST schedule an appointment with Southport Property Management personnel. Call 428-6037 to schedule an Outgoing Condition Report.

- All keys are to be returned to the Property Management Department by way of a move out inspection.
- Manitoba Hydro/Gas are to be changed on vacate date as indicated on the Notice to Vacate form.
- The tenant is responsible to ensure that the unit is cleaned to a standard acceptable to the landlord prior to vacating the unit. Acceptable standards are thus:

Exterior:

- Grass to be mowed and yard debris free (seasonal).
- Snow to be cleared from drive and walkways (seasonal).
- All debris and garbage to be properly bagged and placed at the end of the driveway.
- Garage to be emptied and swept.
- Recycling boxes to be cleaned and placed in garage.
- Pet yard cleanup and restoration may be charged to your rental account if not completed.

Interior:

- All walls and the areas behind and beneath the fridge and stove are to be washed (wallpaper and borders must be removed).
- Please do not patch nail or anchor holes.
- The interior and exterior of the fridge is to be cleaned (do not unplug fridge).
- The stove is to be cleaned (including burner pans, oven, drawer, racks and outer area).
- All light fixtures are to be washed and left with working bulbs that match the fixture.
- All cupboards (including the top), drawers, shelves and closets should be clear of debris and washed.
- Windows are to be cleaned, and sills dirt free.
- Heat registers, vents and fans are to be free of dirt and dust.
- Bathroom tub, sink, toilet, shower tiles/wrap and bathroom cabinets are to be cleaned appropriately (drain plugs present).
- Furnace and hot water tank are to be dust free, and the furnace filter replaced.
- All floors and baseboards are to be swept or vacuumed and washed.
- All keys present and functional (2 sets).

The unit is to be cleaned thoroughly. A report of the move out condition report is kept on file. Cleaning deficiencies, damages and garbage removal will be charged to your rental account at move-out along with your final water bill.
