Member of the Month

Congratulations to our February Member of the Month, Nerissa Edwards!

Nerissa began her fitness journey at Central Plains RecPlex in September 2022 with the goal of improving her health.

After years of overcoming surgeries and stomach issues, she recognized the importance of incorporating exercise into her weekly routine to regain her strength and well-being.

Today, Nerissa remains committed to staying consistent and maintaining good health through regular exercise. Her dedication is a testament to the power of perseverance and the impact of an active lifestyle.

Congratulations, Nerissa, on your inspiring journey toward lifelong health and wellness!
